Note: The nomination for the award can also be filed by a non-applicant i.e. one who is not bidding for the award for itself. However, it should be with the written consent of the organization being nominated that in the event of their selection for the award, they would accept the award and attend the Award Ceremony.

Instituted on 25th October 2010 by Svayam- Global Centre for Inclusive Environments, New Delhi, India, and supported by Jindal SAW Limited, Svayam Accessibility Awards are an effort to promote and recognize the concept of Accessibility and Universal Design in all spheres of our lives to make way for livable communities – in both rural and urban landscape.

The awards are conferred on the organizations and individuals who have shown consistent commitment towards providing accessible infrastructure for all. These awards play a pivotal role in providing the right impetus to the development of inclusive infrastructure and related policies and practices ensuring that accessibility initiatives are sustainable and meaningful.

The awards are an attempt to recognize the efforts of the potential organizations and to encourage them to reach their highest potential to ensure universal accessibility for all. This is also to encourage other organizations to be in pursuit of achieving universal access in their infrastructure, products and services that leads to making a community livable for all.

Thematic Areas Covered:

Currently the Awards cover the following thematic areas/categories:

- Most Accessible Public Transport (whether managed by Government, Private or PPP model)
- Most Accessible Municipality/Local Development Authority
- Most Accessible Hotel/Guest House (Hospitality)
- Most Accessible Tourist Attraction/Heritage Site (both- managed by Govt. or private or PPP model)
- Best Practice Project around Accessible Mobility and Transport Awards: In addition to any of the above categories, the awards are open for initiatives taken in promoting inclusive education, inclusive employment, inclusive para-transit systems, inclusive housing, inclusive designing/invention of products/services, etc.

SELECTION PROCESS

The selection will take place in two phases, with a pre-selection/screening in the first phase followed by a final selection. Applications that are non-serious, incomplete, not of required merit or not supported by testimonials, etc will be filtered out/ rejected in the first phase itself.

In the final phase, a jury composed of International Panel of Experts will assess the shortlisted entries/ applications. The selected finalists in different thematic areas will then be felicitated at the award ceremony.
